

ADULT WORKSHOP INTRO TO PEN & INK

Thursdays
11:00am-12:30pm
October 6,13,20,27
Space is limited,
register online.

Discover a Black & White approach to your art. Can you picture the world in Black & White? Discover the beauty of pen & ink drawing. Create dramatic images: figurative, realistic, design or abstracts. Explore the versatility of positive and negative space. Learn to use a crow quill pen, Micron pen & try writing with a feather! Various techniques will be demonstrated and taught. Minimum supplies needed to create dramatic results!

Class free of charge; supplies not included. Supplies must be purchased by student prior to the first session. Approximate cost of supplies is $30. Class size limited to 10 people. Must commit to all 4 sessions.

Follow us on Social Media

The instructor Judika Lieberman earned a BS from Pace University in Fine Arts and a MS from College of New Rochelle in Studio Art. Her art and graphic design career has spanned government, publishing, advertising and teaching.