

A ZOOM BOOK TALK WITH LOCAL AUTHOR KATIE SISE

THURSDAY
DECEMBER 3
7:00PM

REGISTER ONLINE AND WE WILL SEND ZOOM CODE.
SIGNED COPIES OF
THE BOOK WILL BE AVAILABLE FOR PURCHASE

"Sleuths will delight in piecing together clues and untangling lies alongside the protagonists."

—Kirkus Reviews

Katie Sise's latest novel revolves around an unsolved mystery of a missing college art student. Emma McCullough has been missing for ten years. Her bracelet is found and her best friend from college is mysteriously attacked. A gripping psychological thriller from the best selling author of "We Were Mothers."

Katie Sise is a resident of Bedford, New York. She began her writing career in the Young Adult Genre. "Open House" is her second adult novel. Prior to becoming a writer she was a jewelry designer and television host. In addition to her writing career she is the mother of four children.

32 Village Green
Bedford, NY
bedfordfreelibrary.org
914-234-3570

Westchester Library App

Follow us on Social Media

